Tom Horn, the Murderer, Hanged This Morning.

Cheyenne, Nov. 20th.—Tom Horn, a well known cattle detective, sentenced to death for the murder of Willie Nickell, the fourteen-year-old son of K. P. Nickell the Iron mountain ranchman, was hanged at 11.05 this morning in the Larmie county jail.
His neck was broken and he died almost immediately. Contrary to expectation of many the condemned man made no confession.

The remains were taken off by Charles Horn, a brother of the deceased, living at Boulder, Colo. and prepared for shipment to that place where burial will occur.

Horn died a game man. Courage and coolness which characterized him during his long period of confinement, was with him to the last.

Horn was born in Missouri, November 21, 1860. He went to the southwest at the age of fourteen years, going first to Santa Fe. He became celebrated as an army scout, Indian fighter and a cattle detective. He was scout in charge of a party that captured Geronimo and was chief of scouts under general Miles in his Porto Rico campaign. In 1892 Horn participated in the raid organized by stockmen against rustlers in Johnson county, Wyo.
Horn was a self-educated man.
He spoke German, Spanish, Apache and a number of other Indian languages fluently. Last summer he wrote a hundred and sixty thousand word history of his career. This book together with personal letters, is left to his staunch friend, John C. Coble, of Bosler, Wyo.—Clipped from the Albuquerque Citizen.

Max Schuster is attending court at Prescott this week.

W. A. Parr was up from Winslow today on business connected with the Winslow oilfields.

Mrs. F. M. Zuck, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fine at Prescott, returned home today. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Helen May.

John Connor, F. M. Zuck and L. E. Divelbess returned from Tucson, Saturday night, where they have been attending a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Arizona.
